THE MERRY JOURNEYS OF MARY JANE

Mary Jane's Visit To Grandma Susan

ONE day, Mary Jane went to visit her grandmother, who lived up the road a piece. She had a lot of groceries her mother told her to give grandma. And she had a nice "sandwich" of two slices of bread, with a whole lot of Mary Jane Syrup spread on them.

Well, she was about half way to Grandma Susan's when she said, "I guess I'll eat my nice spread of bread and Mary Jane Syrup, so I'll be strong, and able to run errands, if Grandma wants me to."

So she sat down and started to eat when a big, fat woodchuck, named Jimmy Jones, came right up along side where Mary Jane was sitting, and said: "Mary Jane, won't you give me a little piece of bread with that lovely syrup on it?" So Mary Jane gave a piece of it to him.

Jimmy said "m-m-m-m"—once or twice, but he didn't say anything else till he was all finished. Then he said, "If folks only knew how good this is they'd eat Mary Jane Syrup for every meal, wouldn't they, Mary Jane?"

And then he gave her his arm, and they went to Grandma Susan's together, where Jimmy Jones helped Mary Jane to mow the lawn.
